PROUD OF SOLDIER WORK

He Went to His Death with Spirits in Exaltation.

New York, Oct. 10.—As an illustration of the lofty sentiment possessed by men who die in the European battlefield in the war for democracy, and a reminder for Americans who may be backward in contributing to the second Liberty loan, the Liberty loan committee made public last night the last letter written by Captain V. G. Tupper of the Canadian Scottish 16th battalion, to his father, Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper. Before his death at the battle of Vimy ridge last April, the soldier wrote:

"My Dear Father:
"I am writing one of these 'in case' letters for the third time, and of course I hope you will never have to read it. If you are reading it now, you will know that your youngest son 'went under' as proud as Punch on the most glorious day of his life. I am taking my company 'over the top' for a mile in the biggest push that has ever been launched in the world, and I trust that it is going to be the greatest feat towards peace."

"Dad, you can't imagine the wonderful feeling. A man thinks something like this: Well, if I am going to die, this is worth it a thousand times."

"I have been over two or three times before, but never with a company of my own. Think of it—a hundred and fifty officers and men who will follow you to hell, if need be."

"I don't want any of you dear people to be sorry for me, although of course you will, in a way. You will miss me, but you will be proud of me. Mind you, I know what I am up against and that the odds are against me. I am not going in the way I did the first time, just for sheer devilment and curiosity. I have seen this game for two years, and I still like it and still feel that my place is here."

"So much for that. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for all your loving kindness to me. This war has done wonders for me. This makes me realize lots of things I would not have done otherwise. I could write a book about it, but you know what I mean."

"Good-bye, dear father and mother, and all of you. Again I say I am proud to be where I am."

"Gordie."
